admire

dull

effort

sulk

We read Love from Louisa this week and learned these new words.

Try and practise them as much as you can at home.

You could try.....
- saying "good effort" when your child tries hard to do something.
- looking at coins in your purse— how many are dull and how many are shiny?
- asking, "would you admire…" "… granny's hair / a smelly sock / a banana peel / a dress / a nice car?" etc.
- taking turns to remark on things - "I'm going to remark on the weather. What a wet day!".
- making silly faces. Ask you child if you look like you are sulking or not sulking.

What do the words mean?

admire - If you admire something you say you think it is good or nice.

dull - Something that is dull is not bright.

effort - If you make an effort you try hard to do something.

remark - If you remark on something you say something about it.

sulk - If you sulk you won't talk or join in because you are sad or cross.
